DEDICATION

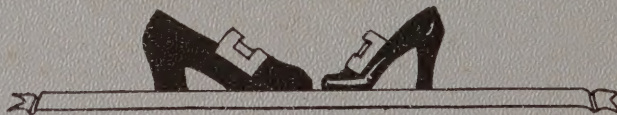

IN MEMORY OF

BRO. E. A. ELAM

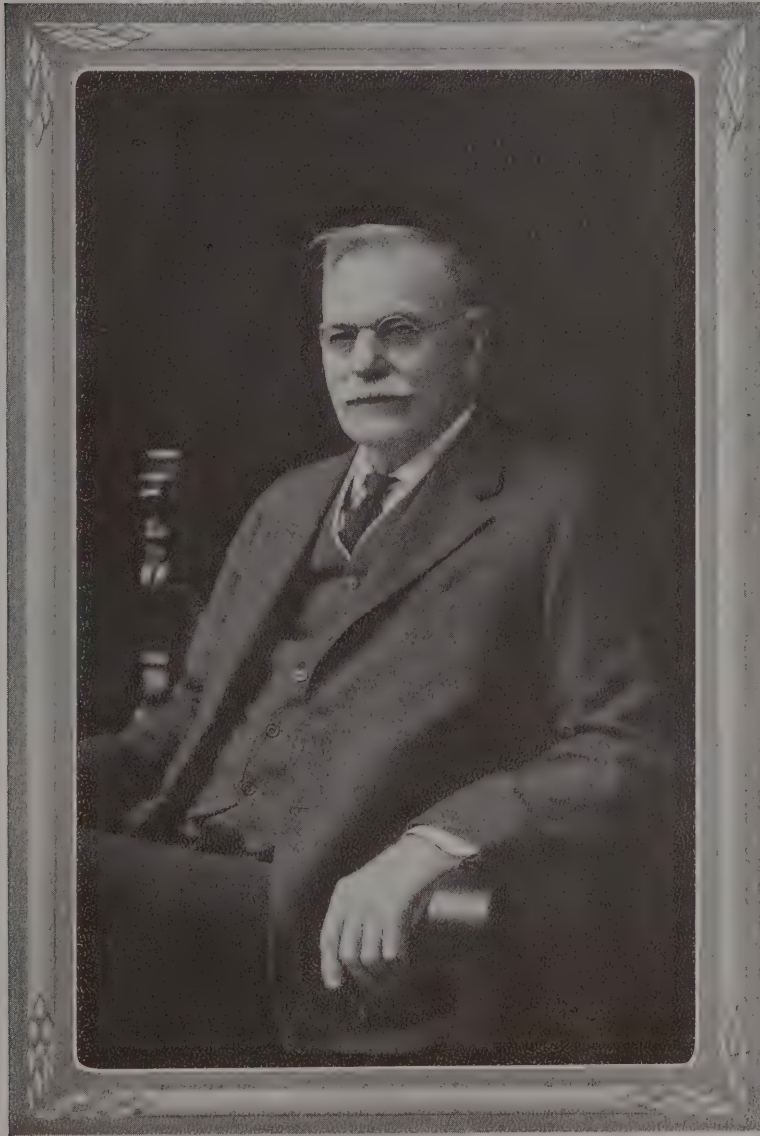

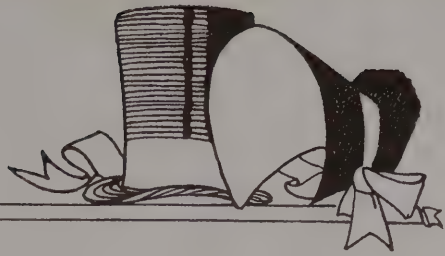

Our loving, faithful friend to the end, we dedicate the 1929 edition of the Backlog.

We shall always keep the memory of his lifetime in our hearts as an example of Christian Service.

May we ever strive to make our lives as pure, noble, and self-sacrificing as his life has been.

CLASS SONG

D. L. C. we give the honor,
As united here we stand,
As we live and work together
In a happy, loyal band.
True to Lipscomb's noble purpose
We will ever do our part
To protect throughout the future
Thy dear name so near our heart.

All the years we spent together
'Mid the scenes we love so well
Will remain as sweetest memories
Wrapt in youth's sweet, mystic spell.
As we journey down life's pathway,
Still our thoughts will oft return
To the happy days remembered
Where we strove life's rules to learn.

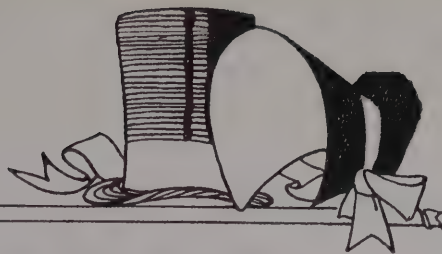

We go forth with firm endeavor,
And a purpose ever true,
And our motto is perfection
In whatever we may do.
But though lands or seas divide us,
We will ever cherish dear
Our beloved Alma Mater,
And her name we will revere.

CLASSES

THIRD-YEAR COLLEGE

CLARENCE EVANS Tompkinsville, Ky.

Clarence has established himself in the hearts of his friends here. He has made a splendid record in baseball, and is known by all to be a real sport. Clarence is unassuming; yet he gets things done. Whatever he undertakes is pretty sure to succeed. He is essentially a business man, and must be regarded as such. He has a level head and a warm heart. His friends are numbered by his acquaintances.

*"To set the cause above renown,
To live the game above the prize."*

Third-Year College; Lipscomb; President of Third-Year College Class; Vice President of Cosmopolitan Club; Vice President of Commercial Club; Logroller; Athletic Editor of BACKLOG; College Nine; Most Popular Boy.

HELEN GOTTO Nashville, Tenn.

Helen came to us with a scholastic record that has few equals. She was valedictorian in Central High School, Class of '26, and also Editor of The Megaphone. She repeated the same thing here—that is, valedictorian of the Class of '28 and Editor of THE BACKLOG. She is a constant source of joy and sunshine. But, above all else, Helen is a Christian. If we should try to select three words that fit her best, we would say "intellectuality," "happiness," and "purity."

"A good woman is a wondrous creature, Lovely all her life long."

Third-Year College; Sappho; Dramatic Club; Secretary of Class.

LUTHER DEACON Henderson, Tenn.

Luther scatters sunshine and joy all along the pathway of life. When others would be wrath, he gently smiles his way through. If he has troubles, no one else knows about it. He is ever ready to serve others. He has won every one that has had the pleasure of knowing him for his lifelong friends. Since his arrival here he has been among the most loved and most popular students.

*"His life was gentle; the elements
So mixed in him that nature might stand up
And say to all the world, 'This was a man.'"*

Vice President of Third-Year College Class; Lipscomb; Workers' Club; Tennis Club; Dramatic Club; Vice President of Tennessee Club; Lipscomb Orators.

THIRD-YEAR COLLEGE

YATER TANT

Memphis, Tenn.

Yater has been an outstanding student of D. L. C. for the past three years. His pleasing personality and great ability and desire to do everything for good have won for him a host of friends. He has so capably edited our periodical this year that we feel that we have been benefited by his coming. From his actions one knows that he believes that "no man gets on so well in this world as he whose daily walk and conversation are clean and consistent, whose heart is pure and whose life is honorable."

Third-Year College; Editor in Chief of Babbler; Founder's Day Orator; Calliopean; Calliopean Orator; President of Workers' Club; Debaters' Club; Dramatic Club; Tennis Club.

HERBERT NANCE

Bellbuckle, Tenn.

"True worth is in being, not seeming," is Herbert's motto, and well has he lived up to it while in our midst. His worth cannot be estimated in a few words. He has been very active in all student activities, especially the Debating Club in 1927-28. He was for two years a very efficient member of our debating team, which never lost a debate. He also took part in various phases of athletics, and was a leader in the scholastic realm. He always greets one with a smile and kind word. He realizes that "a soft answer turneth away wrath."

Debaters' Club; Preachers' Club; Tennis Club; Classical Language Club; Lipscomb; Lipscomb Declamation Winner; Workers' Club; Tennessee Club; Babbler Staff.

DENVER FIKE

Birmingham, Ala.

If we had to describe Denver in one word, it would be "order." He is neat in his person and habits; his room is always clean; and his life, we think, is as pure as can be found. He is a singer and musician of no small ability, and his work in the orchestra will long be remembered. If Denver has an enemy, we have never met him. The work he has done here has been of the very best type, and because of his courtesy and friendliness he has won all who know him to friendship.

*"A man among men,
Yet withal a man with a heart."*

Lipscomb; Voice Department; Schubert Choral Club; Orchestra; College Quartet; Alabama Club; Tennis Club; Workers' Club; Babbler Staff; Basketball Team; Debaters' Club; "L" Club.

SENIORS

SENIORS

ANDY T. RITCHIE, JR. Madison, Tenn.

Of all the members of the Senior Class, it is harder to select words to express the service of Andy T. than that of any other member of the class. He was a student at D. L. C. for six years, and year by year his heart grew fonder of the institution. He tried to give just as much back to the college which he loved so much as he took away. His smiles and kind words won the friendship of all his classmates, and his ability put him in the lead in all enterprises of the class of which he was a member. He was President of the class when a Junior, and was unanimously elected President of the Senior Class. He not only served as President, but his voice enabled him to charm all who listened to his singing. We feel sure that in the future he will make one of the best preachers and church leaders of the brotherhood.

Business Manager of BACKLOG; Winner of Founder's Day Contest; Quartet for five years; Tennessee Club; Dramatic Club; Most Loyal Boy; Most Striking Personality; Lipscomb; Schubert Choral Club; Grandchildren's Club; Music Club.

SENIORS

PAISLEY, SHACKELFORD . . . Savannah, Tenn.
Vice President

It is hard to look at this small likeness of Paisley and guess what is behind those glasses. He was voted by the student body of D. L. C. as the most talented and one of the wittiest boys. He is a good musician; and when his friends think of him, they will see his violin, and the sweet music of days gone by will ring in their ears again. A genius like Paisley is not found in every school, and D. L. C. feels especially honored in having him as a student.

Vice President of Senior Class; Treasurer of Tennessee Club; Lipscomb; Orchestra; Most Talented; Class Prophet.

IRENE WYNNS Paris, Tenn.
Class Secretary

Irene is truly the "Best All-round Girl," and consequently "Wynns" many friends. She has been a diligent worker and an outstanding student of D. L. C. She has been as fair in the game of life as she has been on the basketball court. She has had such an influence with her fellow students that it will be hard for any one else to take her place.

Kappa Nu; Tennessee Club; Debaters' Club; Secretary of Workers' Club; Tennis Club; A. V. Club; Social Editor of Babblar; Basketball; School Cheer Leader; Best All-round Girl; "L" Club; Librarian.

ROBERT NEIL Nashville, Tenn.
Treasurer

Robert came to D. L. C. six years ago, and has been working ever since. With each passing year we have learned to think more of him. He is very much interested in sports, also in the girls. This year he has shown his business ability by his work on THE BACKLOG and in connection with our new seats. D. L. C. will miss him much next year.

Business Manager of BACKLOG; Treasurer of Senior Class; College Quartet; College Nine; Tennessee Club; Lipscomb; Schubert Choral Club; Modern Language Club; Day Student; President of Grandchildren's Club; Most Gallant Boy.

SENIORS

KATHRYN CULLUM Nashville, Tenn.

"Kat." is truly a genius. She has a striking personality, which has caused her to be closely associated with the "President." She has done much for the good of the school during her six years here as a faithful and loyal student. Her willingness and desire to do that which is good is one of her outstanding characteristics. She truly deserves the honors that have been bestowed upon her by her classmates. We all love her.

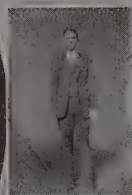

Sappho; Class Historian; Chorus; Glee Club; Tennessee Club; Day Student; Most Intellectual; Most Studious; Valedictorian.

DOUGLAS MCPHERSON Nashville, Tenn.

The calm dignity and imposing grandeur of his character has been a great influence on those about him. With the aid of patience, courage, devotion, and talent, he has faithfully discharged his duties while here in school. He is an orator of no mean ability and a faithful servant in the service of the Lord.

Lipscomb; Day Student; Classical Language Club; Founder's Day Orator; Preachers' Club.

RICHIE MAI DEAN Nashville, Tenn.

Richie Mai is among the students who have attended both high school and college at D. L. C. She is going to be missed by not only her close friends, but the institution which has known her so long. She is lucky in that she has no enemies and many friends among the Senior Class.

The following quotation proves true in her case: "With a happy word for every one, a friend to gypsy and to king."

Sappho; Day Students' Club; Tennessee Club.

SENIORS

MARY LEE RIGGS Los Angeles, Cal.

We feel that D. L. C. would have been far from complete had M. L. not been here to mingle her Western ideas with our Southern ideas. Mary Lee has been a genuine good sport in everything. That she plays the game fair is shown in that she is D. L. C.'s foremost girl athlete. She has the courage and grit to tackle any job. We know that her perseverance will bring her success and happiness.

Kappa Nu; Home Economics Club; Cosmopolitan Club; Best Girl Athlete; Basketball Team; Music Department; "L" Club.

RUFUS UNDERWOOD Florence, Ala.

D. L. C. is proud to have as one of her members one of the coming orators. He possesses many qualities, which gain the admiration of all who know him. With his cunning smile he scatters sunshine and happiness along his pathway. His handsomeness and striking personality won for him the heart of a deserving girl. Luck to you!

Lipscomb; Alabama Club; Preachers' Club; Most Handsome Boy; Founder's Day Orator; Class Orator.

RUBY LANDERS Miami, Fla.

For two years Ruby has brought us sunshine from Florida. Wherever she goes, she smiles and makes you forget all of your cares or troubles. Her gay laughter can be heard whenever she is near. She is a genial, good sport and always eager to participate in any fun. Ruby's motto is: "Why let studying interfere with one's education?"

Sappho; Cosmopolitan Club; Home Economics Club; Honorary Member of "L" Club.

SENIORS

PAULINE ALRED Cedartown, Ga.

"Polly" has ably represented the "Goober Grabber" State in her loyalty to and ability to win friends, as well as by her standing as a student. She is a jolly, sympathetic friend, ready to help and cheer the ones who are not so fortunate in feeling at home. "Polly" always came with her part in anything for the good of D. L. C.

Sappho; Cosmopolitan Club.

BEATRICE BURNS Bishop, Ala.

Among the reserved and modest of D. L. C., Beatrice is one of the outstanding ones. But those whom she meets at once become true friends. Her neatness is one of her greatest attractions. Her studious nature is a great influence on her associates. She is kind and true to her class. Although she hasn't been very active, she is always ready to help when called upon.

Sappho; Alabama Club.

CELIA SOUTH Starkville, Miss.

Celia brings with her the happy, breezy ways of Mississippi. She has proved to D. L. C. that Mississippi girls can make good in educational and social activities. Many have been relieved of their troubles by the ripples of her laughter, which may be heard on the stairs, in the halls, and on the campus. She is willing and ready to help the sad and weary at all times. Her ability has caused her to be very active in all the work of the school.

Kappa Nu; A. V. Club; Mississippi Club; Workers' Club; Kappa Nu Debater; Dramatic Club.

SENIORS

FRANCES JONES Highland Home, Ala.

"Lil Francois" is only five feet tall, but her black eyes and sweet ways have gained for her many dear friends. She has been here only one year, but she has done much for D. L. C., being a good student and heartily entering into everything she undertook. She has a unique humor, which many appreciate. Her worst fault is flirting with other girls' sweethearts.

Sappho; Alabama Club.

DOROTHEA CALHOUN Nashville, Tenn.

As a student, she ranks with the best. She is a great sport lover and especially fond of horses. She is gifted with a musical talent equaled by few in school. Her favorite pastime is "radioing." She is a very distinctive type of girl, which attracts the attention of every one. We are glad to have her as a member of our class.

Sappho; Day Students' Club; Tennessee Club.

ERMAL HENTHORN Kansas City, Mo.

Although Ermal has been here only one year, she is one of the most outstanding members of the student body. She is very dependable. Her capacity and efficiency as a leader and worker were shown by the way she led the "Logrollers" to victory. Her intellectuality and willingness have made her a very valuable member of the class. Not only has she been a great benefit to the Senior Class, but she has brightened the life of a certain Kentuckian. We wish you much happiness.

Sappho; Sappho Editor of BACKLOG; Cosmopolitan Club; Most Popular Girl; Sappho Debater.

SENIORS

MAGGIE LOU MORTEN Columbia, Tenn.

The sweet smile and jovial disposition of Maggie Lou have won the hearts of all her classmates. She keeps her troubles to herself, and is always making others happy. Her willingness to do her part is one of her outstanding characteristics. She not only has a lovable disposition, but she is one of the most attractive girls of our class.

Kappa Nu; Workers' Club; Tennessee Club; Tennis Club; Dramatic Club.

JOHN D. COX Killen, Ala.

John is one who is not afraid of responsibility. He enthusiastically entered into all worth-while enterprises and put his full strength in everything. He stood for right everywhere, and, as a result, his influence has been felt in both classroom and on the campus. It is such students as he that have helped to radiate the morals of D. L. C. John has only one weakness—a blond from Sheffield.

Lipscomb; Dramatic Club; Preachers' Club; Alabama Club; Founder's Day Orator.

MYRTLE MAE LANE Sheffield, Ala.

The Class of '29 is honored to have had the "Countess of Sheffield" with it for the past two years. (John especially thinks so.) She is a "friend in deed" to one "in need." She has never shirked any duty expected of her. She has the grit and determination to obtain anything she desires. Her character has been an outstanding light in D. L. C.

Sappho; Alabama Club; Workers' Club; Dramatic Club.

SENIORS

HARRIETT ORNDORFF Nashville, Tenn.

Harriett spent six years in D. L. C. While here she made many friends, and we are sure she will never be forgotten by the many who know her. She was a good student and an expression student, which put her in the lead in many activities. Her service was a pleasure to all the students and teachers. From the record she made while here, it is not a mistake to expect her to make great success in anything she does.

Salutatorian; Workers' Club; Dramatic Club; Debaters' Club; Tennessee Club; Modern Language Club.

LONIE LINDSEY Tuscumbia, Ala.

When one says "Lonie Lindsey," he has spoken the name of one of the most substantial members of the Class of '29. He proves a true friend when clouds of sadness and disappointment overshadow one's life, as well as in days of sunshine and prosperity. During his stay at D. L. C. he has never experienced a fine little romance. We do not wonder at that, though, since he married before coming here.

Alabama Club; Lipscomb; Dramatic Club.

MARGUERITE HYDE Senatobia, Miss.

She quietly pursues all her duties daily. She greets every one with a smile and kind word. Her optimistic attitude has been very influential. For two years she has walked the halls of D. L. C., making less noise than any one in class; but when it came to work, you could always depend on her. She followed the motto of: "A still tongue and busy hands get the work done."

Workers' Club; Mississippi Club; Kappa Nu.

SENIORS

KATHERINE LEWIS Nashville, Tenn.

"Kat's" charming personality embraces the following characteristics: Neatness, dependability, faithfulness, sincerity, integrity, honesty, and loyalty. Having watched for two years her neatness in person, dependability in duty, faithfulness to a trust, sincerity of purpose, integrity and honesty of heart, and loyalty to this institution and willingness to work untiringly for its many activities, sweet memories of her will ever linger in the minds of her classmates.

Sappho; Sapphonian Debater; Vice President of Workers' Club; Tennessee Club; Debaters' Club; Matron Dining Hall; Humor Editor of Babblar; A. V. Club; Honorary Member of "L" Club.

EDD HOLT Elkmont, Ala.

It is hard to select words to express just what the friendship of Edd has meant to the girls and boys of D. L. C. He is one out of millions, not a king or president, but a splendid student, and it takes him only a short time to be in the lead in everything that is uplifting. It was a common expression when anything was to be done, "Why, get Edd Holt; he can do anything;" and the work was always an honor to the school.

Coeditor of BACKLOG; Science Editor of Babblar; Lipscomb; Lipscomb Orator; Best All-round Boy; College Wit; Most Jolly; Most Original; Alabama Club; Workers' Club.

WILL FRANCES JOURNEY Pinehurst, N. C.

Will Frances never loses an opportunity of saying a kind word or doing a kind deed. She seems to realize that it costs nothing and yet is productive of much good. She perseveres in her duty and remains silent when it is necessary. As we see her cheerfully and faithfully performing the duties of each day, we are reminded of the statement: "The most profitable and praiseworthy genius in the world is untiring industry." From the choice she made in 1929, she, no doubt, believes that we must associate ourselves with men of good quality if we esteem our own reputation and that it is better to be alone than in bad company.

Coeditor of BACKLOG; Kappa Nu; Kappa Nu Editor of Babblar; Cosmopolitan Club; A. V. Club; Debaters' Club; Dramatic Club; Honorary Member of "L" Club; Grandchildren's Club.

SENIORS

SARA MCRADY Petersburg, Tenn.

*"Kind words are little sunbeams
That sparkle as they fall;
And loving smiles are sunbeams,
A light of joy to all."*

The poet surely must have been inspired by Sara or some character of her type as he penned these words of truth. Sara never fails to speak kind words to those with whom she meets daily, and for those whose hearts are filled with discouragement she turns darkness into light. She wears a smile of friendship and love, and there is sunshine wherever she goes. When she leaves D. L. C., the Dramatic Department will suffer the loss of one of its most efficient students. May she ever be successful in all her undertakings for good.

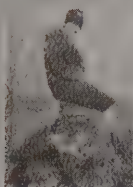

Kappa Nu; Tennessee Club; Dramatic Club;

HELEN WHEATLEY Nashville, Tenn.

Helen has been with us for four years; but being a day student, she is not known so well by all the students, but those who know her love her. Her happy disposition has helped to cheer her associates. She is willing and eager to help those who are in need at any time. May she ever wear the cheerful smile that she has had during her stay here.

Sappho; Day Students' Club; Tennessee Club.

LUCILLE H. SMITH Caruthersville, Mo.

Missouri is well represented in D. L. C. by the striking personality and the musical ability which Lucille possesses. She is very active in all student activities. Although she will be missed by all, she will find a warm welcome for her sunny smile in the future.

Kappa Nu; Cosmopolitan Club; Dramatic Club; Orchestra; Most Talented; Music Department; Kappa Nu Debater; Honorary Member of "L" Club.

SENIORS

JUDY TUCKER Mulberry, Tenn.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed." Judy can be counted as one who truly fulfills this adage. She is ready at all times to serve with a smile. Her quiet and calm disposition causes her to gain the love of her associates. We predict success and happiness for her.

Kappa Nu; Tennessee Club.

HUBERT BARBER Senatobia, Miss.

Hubert is a good sport, always ready to do his bit in every mischievous deed. But at heart he is truly a worthy member of the student body. His ability as a cornetist is a great value to Lindsay Hall about six o'clock in the morning. He also shows great ability in various athletics.

Callio; Mississippi Club; College Basketball Team; College Nine; Workers' Club; Orchestra; Dramatic Club; "L" Club; Schubert Choral Club.

SUE PARKES Lynchburg, Tenn.

Sue is truly a living example of happy girlhood. She possesses one great quality all girls desire—neatness. She is neat not only in dress and personal appearance, but her room is always a sunny spot where friends are welcome. Sue is very quiet and modest, yet she is far from timid. You have to know her to know her wit.

Kappa Nu; Tennessee Club.

SENIORS

OPAL MCPHERSON Nashville, Tenn.

She is admired for what she has not done that might have been ill, and blessed for her strong devotion to all that is good and uplifting. Opal has a very lovable disposition, which has gained for her many true friends. Her one failing is her unfaithfulness to "Cupid." The class claims it an honor to have had her as a member. She is certain to succeed in whatever she undertakes.

Sappho; Day Students' Club; Tennessee Club.

W. HOMER ROARK Westport, Tenn.

Not all the talent of the Senior Class was gone before Homer entered, for by his work and loyalty to the class he proved his ability to do anything he was called on to do. He was not only a loyal worker in his class, but to the college. For two years he was bookkeeper for the college, and a faithful, conscientious worker, always at his post of duty. His business course from Bowling Green Business University enabled him to render service in more than one way.

Workers' Club; Tennessee Club; Religious Activity Editor of Babbler; Staff Stenographer of BACKLOG; Lipscomb; Dramatic Club; Bookkeeper; Typist for Dramatic Department.

INEZ ANDEREGG Huntland, Tenn.

"Andy's" frank personality has been one of the unusual features of D. L. C. "Andy" has a way all her own, and has proved to be a source of entertainment to many during her two years at D. L. C. She is a good sport and ready to add to any wholesome fun. David Lipscomb is losing a real live wire, and we hope that she will continue to be the real sport in everything she undertakes.

Kappa Nu; Workers' Club; Basketball Team; Tennis Club; Tennessee Club; Commercial Club; "L" Club.

SENIORS

JENNIE SUE WILLIS Manchester, Tenn.

Her Southern attractiveness has been one of the many assets of the Class of '29. Sue is not only attractive, but she is a diligent worker, a good student, and a true lover. She has been a valuable member of the Basketball Team, always entering heartily into the game. With such outstanding qualities as these, we know that Jennie Sue is destined to live a successful life.

Home Economics Club; Art Club; Tennessee Club; Kappa Nu; "L" Club; Basketball Team; Workers' Club; Librarian; Tennis Club; Most Attractive Girl; Grandchildren's Club.

ELIZABETH CULLUM Nashville, Tenn.

"Ever stand up for your rights" is "Liz's" motto. May she live up to this in life as she has in the past. When she is around, every one knows it, for she is jolly, talkative, and attractive. She lives to be ruler of life and not a slave of life.

*"Laugh, and the world laughs with you;
Weep, and you weep alone."*

Elizabeth's good nature causes the world to laugh with her.

Sappho; Grandchildren's Club; Home Economics Club; Honorary Member of "L" Club; Tennessee Club.

RAY HOLDER Bridgeport, Ala.

Ray is a true representative of Alabama. She has the true qualities of a genuine girl; laughs her way through life and never looks on the dark side of things. She not only enjoys life, but plays the game fair in school and out, and also on the basketball court.

Kappa Nu; Alabama Club; Basketball Team; Workers' Club; "L" Club; Home Economics Club; Tennis Club.

SENIORS

EMMA RUTH WEST Decherd, Tenn.

Few know her as she truly is, for she quietly and thoughtfully pursues her own course. But those who do have the privilege of associating with her know she is quiet, kind, likeable, sweet, and willing to help when she is needed. These elements of character are to be admired. It is very amusing to see the twinkle of mischief and fun which often appears in her eyes and startles those about her.

Kappa Nu; Tennessee Club; Workers' Club.

EMMA L. STANFORTH Hillsboro, Ohio

"Emmie" is one who is sublimely courageous, good, intellectual, crafty, commanding, obedient, graceful, reserved, and witty. She has not been so active in the activities of the class this year because of her faithfulness to her duties as Registrar, but what time she has had she has used very profitably for the good of the class. Her sparkling black eyes have won for her many admirers, but thus far she has escaped "Cupid's dart."

Kappa Nu; Cosmopolitan Club; Modern Language Club; Workers' Club; Music Club; Registrar.

DOROTHY BLUE AKIN Nashville, Tenn.

Dorothy's intelligence and talent have made her a great asset to her class. She is the type of girl that demands admiration from all her associates. We are confident that she will be successful in all her undertakings.

Sappho; Day Students' Club; Tennessee Club.

SENIORS

ENOLA RUCKER Nashville, Tenn.

Unassuming and quiet, Enola is loved by all. Her sunny smile has cheered us many times. She has a courage which will not be daunted. She has made a fine record for the past six years. Success in anything she undertakes is ahead of her. She will surely be missed next year, but we know she will make as loyal an alumnus as she has a student.

Sappho; Tennessee Club; Glee Club; Day Students' Club.

GUSSIE SMITH Forbus, Tenn.

If you want something to sound witty, just let "Gus" say it for you. Her jollity and wit always make her the center of attraction. She did not enter our class until after Christmas of 1927, but since then she has proved a very loyal and earnest-working member. We feel that our class has been benefited by her presence. May happiness and success be hers.

Kappa Nu; Workers' Club; Tennessee Club; Debaters' Club; Wittiest Girl; Tennis Club.

FRANCES BURNETT Franklin, Tenn.

Frances came into our midst last year and soon won a place in our hearts. She has worked hard both years, not only on her books, but for the school. She is always willing to help whenever she can. We need more girls who make others happy. We know we will miss her, but we hope she will continue to press forward.

Sappho; Tennessee Club; Day Students' Club; French Club.

SENIORS

LUCY CRAIG Moulton, Ala.

The class has been greatly blessed by the presence of this genuine, good girl. Her friends cannot be numbered, for they are too numerous. She is ready and eager to help those in need. Her true Christian character is shown by the life she lives. Her influence has been felt by all the Avalon Home girls. She has the element of a true character, and we are sure that she will make great success in her profession as a teacher.

Kappa Nu; Alabama Club; Dramatic Club; Debaters' Club; Modern Language Club.

ANNIE FRANCES ALEXANDER . . . Moulton, Ala.

Ann's beauty and blond hair make her one of the most attractive co-eds of D. L. C. Her winning personality has gained for her many lifelong friends. She is not only beautiful, but is very intellectual. She has proven her ability during her two years here. We wish for her the most success.

Kappa Nu; Modern Language Club; Alabama Club.

MARTHA LOUISE HARDING . . . Franklin, Tenn.

With her brush she beautifies, and with her smile she makes others love her. She has been a very loyal and good-working Senior. She is a promising prospect for a future artist of note; for where there is talent, endurance, and courage, success is certain to follow. May we some day look upon the beautiful pictures that will bring her fame and fortune.

Sappho; President of Art Club; Tennessee Club.

SENIORS

NINA LANDRUM Tompkinsville, Ky.

Nina is one of the few of us who realizes that the greatest happiness comes from serving others. She has many friends, and because of her unwavering loyalty to them they have remained true to her. Nina remains true to any trust put in her, and has always been willing to do her part of any undertaking. With these qualities, success is destined to come her way.

Sappho; Cosmopolitan Club; Home Economics Club; Honorary Member of "L" Club.

J. MARVIN POWELL Sarah, Miss.

"Still water runs deep." Few of those who associate with "Dr. Powell" know him as he really is. His striking personality embraces many admirable characteristics. His heart is filled with truth and kindness. He devotes much time daily to the study of God's word. He is earnest and sincere in the noble work which he has undertaken. Even though he never allowed his heart to be captured by any of the D. L. C. girls, he is greatly interested in the fair sex.

Lipscomb; Mississippi Club; Debaters' Club; Preachers' Club; Tennis Club; Dramatic Club; Lipscomb Orator.

KATHRYN LEE Chattanooga, Tenn.

"Never do today what you can put off until tomorrow" is "Kat's" motto, and she well lives up to it. She likes to do things, and is always ready to heartily enter into a good game. She enjoys basketball, tennis, and many other sports. Ever so often she exercises her eyes a little too much—in other words, she is gifted at flirting. Go to it, Kathryn; you will get there some day.

SENIOR HISTORY

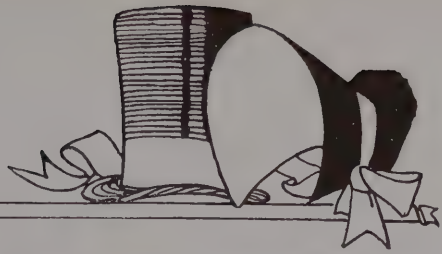

SIX years ago a little band of high school Freshmen entered D. L. C. From year to year this group has increased until as Seniors we number forty-nine. Many have dropped out, but others have joined us. Only seven of that Freshman Class remain.

Among the seventy-six Juniors last year we had many talented students in expression, both vocal and instrumental music, and art. The medal at the Lipscomb Declamation Contest was awarded a Junior. We also had thirteen among the first places in the Who's Who Contest.

As we come to our last year at David Lipscomb, we find a group of Seniors working together harmoniously and determined to make this the best Senior Class D. L. C. has ever known. Much talent has been found in the class. Two members of the college quartet, both this year and last, came from it. Among the number of fine expression students we have one who will receive her diploma. We also have artists of no little ability. The Founder's Day Medal was won by a Senior, and all except one were members of this class. This year we won eighteen first-place honors in the Who's Who Contest. Among the social events of the year was a Halloween party given by the Seniors. The class play was given later.

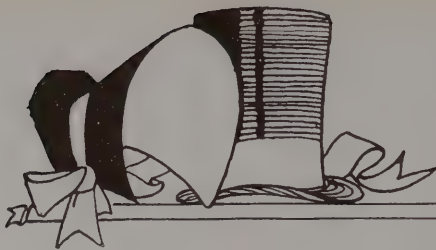

As we thus review the work of the year, we feel that this has been due to a large extent to the leadership of our President, Mr. Andy T. Ritchie, Jr. But he alone could not have made it the success it has been. Each one has wanted to be of real benefit to the school. This was shown when the class met and unanimously decided to sponsor a plan for reseating Harding Hall. These seats are now in their places as monuments of the labor and love of the Seniors of 1928-'29.

CLASS PROPHECY

IN 1950, after I had become bald and was no longer considered the handsomest man in the movies, I followed the profession of corn-plaster salesman, and, as such, I met many old classmates at D. L. C. Now that I am retired at my luxurious cell at the home for feeble-minded, I find much amusement in reading my diary of those days when I was the stellar corn-plaster salesman of America.

Glance over my shoulder as we read extracts at random:

January 11, 1950, Flea Junction, Cal.—Blew in here last night; was arrested at once by Policewoman Kathrine Lewis. On her invitation, I spent the night with Jailer Andy T. Ritchie, Jr. Thought the bunks were supposed to be for one only, but by midnight there were about two thousand crawling around in the bunk with me. Jailer Ritchie said this was due to the negligence of the matrons—Maggie Lou Morton, Emma Ruth West, and Ritchie Mae Dean.

March 3, 1950, Hollywood, Cal.—Given a ride into town by the great movie actress, Beatrice Burns. Gave her three corn plasters to show my appreciation. Surprised to know that she is to marry Rufus Underwood, executioner at Sing Sing. Went calling at several places. Received cup of coffee from the social worker, Mary Lee Riggs; a hard biscuit and sausage at the mansion of Mayor and Mrs. Homer Roark. Mrs. Roark has changed since she was Lucille Smith.

May 13, 1950, En Route.—Am hoboing to Kansas City. Trip very unpleasant, for Marvin Powell kicks in his sleep. He's going back to his wife, who used to be Sarah McRady; but she probably won't have him since his elopement with the famous toe dancer, Frances Burnett.

May 14, 1950, Squash Vine, Kan.—Douglas McPherson, conductor on the freight, threw us off; so we spent the night in Lonie Lindsay's dairy barn. He has a very exclusive dairy and employs as milk maids Myrtle Mae Lane, Jennie Sue Willis, and Kathryn Lee. Sold half dozen corn plasters to his bookkeeper, Sue Parkes.

August 21, 1950, Nashville, Tenn.—Flew from Brentwood today over the Hot Air Transport Company's line. Nina Landrum, as president of the concern, has made it a success; but Ermal Henthorn and Ray Holder are very reckless pilots. Was surprised to see the newly-wed missionaries, Hubert Barber and Inez Anderegg, on the plane.

December 25, 1950, Savannah, Tenn.—Came home for my Christmas presents, which were more than were expected. They include: One bandana handkerchief from Lucy Craig, now singing in grand opera; two pairs yarn sox from Dr. Dorothea Calhoun, baby specialist; one necktie from Irene Wynns, now trapeze performer with Robert Neil's one-ring circus; two big sticks peppermint candy from Dorothy Akin and Martha Louise Harding, proprietors of the cat and dog hospital at Podunk. Their head nurse, Emma Stanforth, sent a plug of Red Apple tobacco.

December 29, 1950, At Home.—Busy sending New-Year greetings (with sample of corn plaster) to Hon. Jewell Tucker, judge of poultry at the Lynchburg fair; Marguerite Hyde, leading lady in Kathryn Cullum's vanities, running in New York; Pauline Alred and Ruby Landers, famous for their pictures in the "before and after taking" advertisements.

January 1, 1951, In Jail.—Received greetings from Helen Wheatley, teacher of voice at the school for deaf mutes; Opal McPherson, make-up artist with Harriette Orndorff and her bathing beauties; Elizabeth Cullum, a lieutenant in the Salvation army; Annie Frances Alexander, who now has red hair and sings nightly in Frances Jones' cabaret in New York.

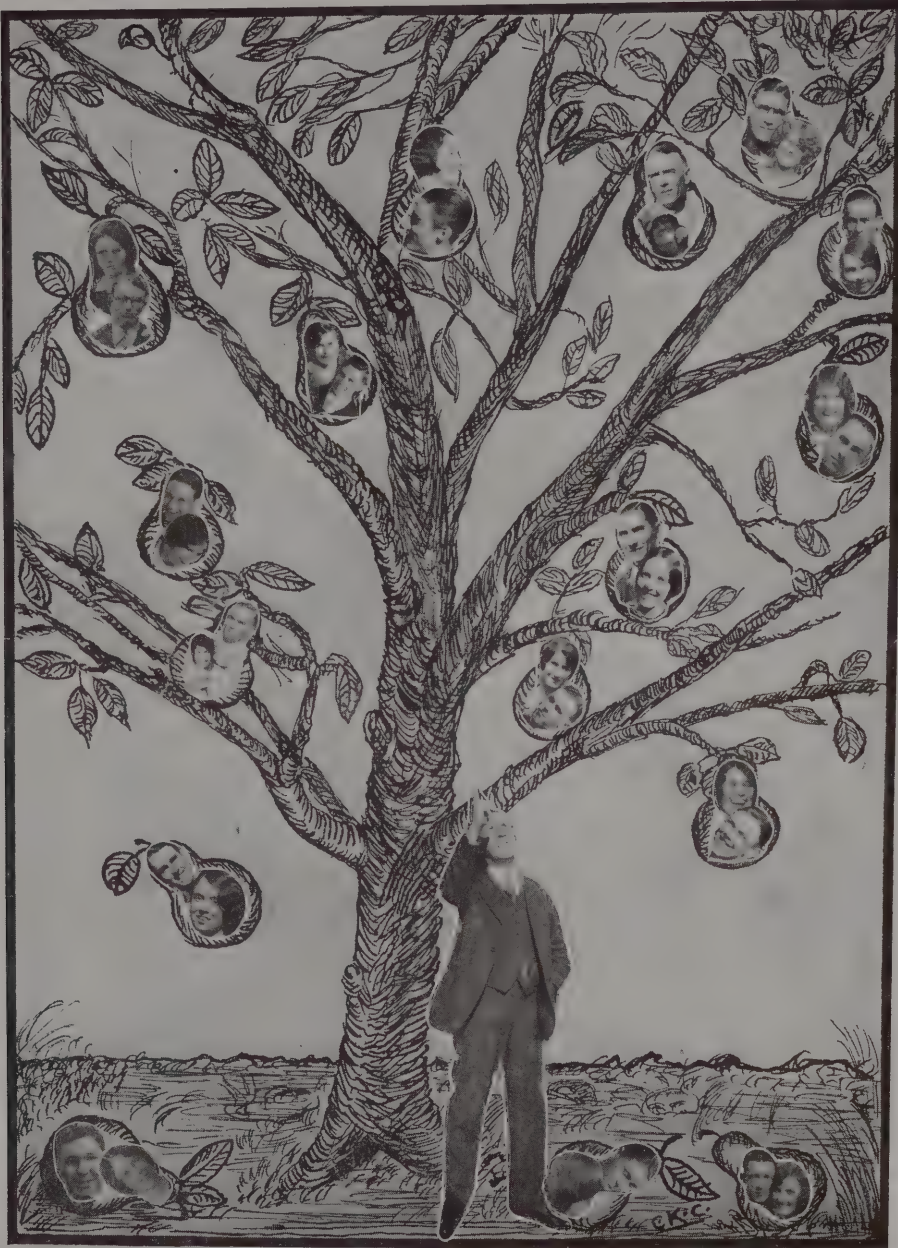

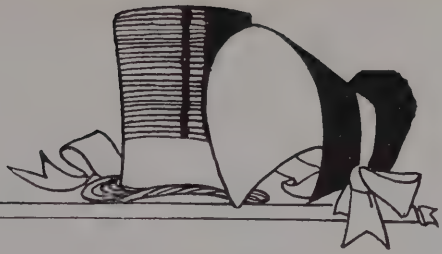

February 11, 1951, Pig Track, Ky.—Sold Will Frances Journey, postmistress, one dozen corn plasters.

April 17, 1951, New York City.—Flew here in answer to a radiogram from the famous dancer, John Cox. Arrived with corn plasters just in time to prevent his partner, Celia South, from having an epidemic of corns.

June 20, 1951, Chicago.—Fell in love with Gussie Smith, the physical culturist; but she says she can love no one but Edd Holt, king of the bootblacks.

LOOKING AHEAD

Soon commencement will close your school days, with their disappointments and pleasures, and you will enter a new period of your growth.

You are fortunate if home and school teachings have fitted you to start with a fair chance of succeeding. And you are wise if you have determined to profit by the experience of others who are so eager to chart the way for you.

The life stories of all great men are full of advice for you. Read the autobiographies of Ben Franklin, Andrew Carnegie, and others. You will find each trying to impress upon the young men who come after them the value of time and money and health.

It can all be summed up in the word "THRIFT." Do you apply the principles of thrift to your daily life? If not, let that be your next lesson, else all effort is vain.

Without thrift it is impossible for a man to have lasting success in any degree. You are a wonderful sight, young people, as you stand, healthy and strong and full of promise, facing a future that is bright and fair. But what are you going to do about it?

Looking ahead, you will surely see the need of money if you succeed. You can build toward that if you will start an Endowment Policy with the first earnings that come after you leave school. This plan is possible to all, and I sincerely recommend it to all who are ambitious.

Do not wait. Start at once, and start right. Let us talk it over with you.
